

Chairman Powell:

We are writing to ask you to delay the rule change on media consolidation and to allow time to have a real public democratic debate on an issue of such importance. We are not in favor of changing the FCC rules to allow for the consolidation of media outlets. There should be more diversity in the media, not less.